

Aint-Bad Magazine

Press Release for Vol.3 No. 2 Self-ie

My thought is me: that is why I cannot stop thinking.
I exist because I think I cannot keep from thinking.

· Jean-Paul Sartre, Nausea (New York, NY: New Directions Publishing, 1938, 1969).

Aint-Bad Magazine is a bi-annual publication that promotes new photographic art. Founded in Savannah, Georgia, the magazine seeks fresh photography and text in support of a progressive community of artists from around the world for our printed publication, web-based forum, and periodic exhibitions and events. After months of hard work, we are excited to officially announce the arrival of our latest issue of Aint-Bad Magazine, Vol. 3 No. 2 Self-ie.

It doesn't matter if you love them or hate them, we know you take them. So follow us on a journey to see what happens when photographers and writers define the Selfie phenomenon beyond the digital device and into the realm of fine art.

We have curated an amazing selection of 20 photographers and writers from all over the world to create this issue which will be printed in a hand numbered edition of 1,000 copies.
